glimpse spring dirt ill with iteration lilac lilac cilia it pulses me repulses me I'm crouched as an egg you're crouched as an egg in a throng of honeysuckle lining the dark plummet here taught resemble resemble brim

of our iris the same shade green image taught me beautify wrong

strike vegetation
it's savage angry meat

fecund is one bisect & lettered mutation away from excrement form is assemblage is nuclear ripping from limb to limb our semblance is we taught the same woman eviscerate
